Report on “Current Trends in Research”

Report on seminar on Current Trends in Research for faculties

On 26th April, 2023 a seminar on "Current Trends in Research" was organized for faculties participating in the Faculty Exchange Program. The speaker was conducted by Dr. Swati Parab, I/C Principal at Atharva School of Business. The event aimed to provide faculties with insights into the latest developments and trends in research, which are essential for their academic and professional growth.

Seminar Highlights:

The seminar commenced with an introduction to the importance of staying updated with current research trends in the fast-evolving academic landscape. Dr. Swati Parab emphasized the impact of technological advancements, changing research methodologies, and the need for interdisciplinary collaboration in today's research environment.

Dr. Parab highlighted the growing significance of interdisciplinary research. She stressed that collaborative research across various disciplines is vital for addressing complex real-world problems and creating innovative solutions.

The speaker discussed the ethical aspects of research, including the responsible conduct of research and the importance of adhering to ethical standards. She provided examples of recent ethical dilemmas in research and how to handle them.

Interactive Sessions:

The seminar included interactive sessions where participants had the opportunity to discuss their research interests, challenges, and potential collaborations. Dr. Parab
