Report on 18th Avishkar Research Convention by University of Mumbai

Date: 05/12/2023

Event: 18th Avishkar Research Convention

Venue: B.N Bandorkar College

Participants: 16

On December 5, 2023, Participants engaged in the 18th Avishkar Research Convention held at B.N. Bandorkar College in Thane, actively taking part in the poster presentation sessions across different research centres. These participants enthusiastically showcased their posters before a panel of judges, gaining valuable insights into the paramount significance of research in fostering education and offering crucial support. The event illuminated the participants on the indispensable role research plays in equipping individuals with the essential skills necessary for pioneering solutions, technological progress, and innovative approaches to existing challenges.

A key takeaway from the convention was the recognition of the imperative for more inclusive research methodologies. Moreover, there was a heightened awareness regarding the specialized training that educators require in effectively managing projects that exemplify the convergence of diverse fields of study. The presentations served as a dynamic platform, empowering participants to identify real-world problems and share their innovative ideas and solutions with both peers and faculty members. This collaborative exchange not only encouraged knowledge sharing but also underscored the need for a holistic approach to research that embraces interdisciplinary perspectives.

Objectives of the activity

1. To Improve research and presentation skills among students
2. To provide a platform to connect, fostering potential collaborations
3. To Inspire and motivate participants to engage in high-quality research
4. To enhance participation skills and knowledge

The outcome of the activity

1. Participants learned about academic and extracurricular activities towards embracing innovation and creative thinking.
2. Participants understand future projects and academic endeavors with renewed enthusiasm and creativity.
3. Participants identified multiple disciplines, demonstrating the power of collaboration and integration.
4. Participants learned, guiding future editions of the Avishkar Convention.
