Report on "Discussion on Union Budget 2023"

A thought-provoking discussion on India's Union Budget was organized by the BAMMC department on 23rd Feb, 2023 in Room 201 from 11am till 1pm. The discussion was attended by students from various semesters within the BAMMC program, bringing together a diverse range of perspectives and insights. Faculty members specializing in media economics, political communication, and cultural studies also actively participated in the discourse.

Objective of the session:

- To provide students with a platform to critically analyze and discuss the various aspects of the budget, with a focus on its implications for media, communication, and cultural sectors.

Outcome of the session:

The discussion encompassing Overview of the Union Budget, Impact on Media Industry, Cultural and Educational Initiatives, Government Communication Strategies etc . proved beneficial for young minds. Students highlighted the significance of budgetary decisions on the media landscape, expressing concerns about the impact of taxation policies and the allocation of resources to support media innovation and development.

Feedback from participants highlighted the success of the discussion in providing a comprehensive understanding of the Union Budget's ramifications for their academic and professional domains. The BAMMC department expressed its commitment to organizing similar discussions on current affairs, ensuring students remain informed and engaged with real-world issues.
