Report on Interdepartmental Debate

The Department of B.Com and BAF department organized the inter-departmental debate competition on 25th of November 2019.

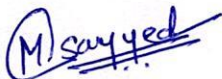

The Host for the event was Mr. Yash Kotak, FYBAF. The Debate Competition was conducted following a traditional structure in 2 phases – First the Qualifying round and then the Final Round.

In the qualifying round a set of 10 students- 05 from BAF and 05 from B.Com- participated in the event, the former team being “for” and the latter team “against” the topic: “Money is the biggest motivator of people at the workplace”. The judges for the Qualifying round were Ms. Bhavika (Assistant Professor, Dept of I.T.) and Mrs. Ruby Tiwari (Assistant Professor, Dept of B.Com) who evaluated the students performance on criteria like Confidence, Clarity, Reasoning, orderly presentation and Conclusive statement. 6 students qualified for the Final Round forming two course wise teams.

In the final round, while the B.Com were “for” the BAF team debated “against” the topic: “Middle class in India is becoming selfish, socially callous and obsessed with material gain.” In this round, the judge Mrs. Sushma Yadav (Assistant Professor of BAF) declared the BAF Group the winner.

The vote of thanks for the event was delivered by Mr. Vipin (Coordinator of B.Com) with congratulatory notes for all the participant.

The event was appreciated by our students. The students were excited and gave positive feedback related to this activity
