REPORT ON

Date: 24/09/2022

24th of September our college has attended the exhibition named cakeology, educational tour visit ; at Mumbai goregaon, the NESCO centre .

Basically Cakeology was an exhibition for all the cake lovers and pastry chef who showcased their talent gracefully, with cake exhibitions and other live demos, which turned out to be life lessons for many...

The people who are new to this industry also made visit there to witness some incredible work of art and also to purchase a variety of equipments.

The students also learnt about entrepreneurship how to start a chocolate or cake shop.

There were many stalls, students visited to every stall to know more about how chocolates are made and different equipment's to make cake and bakery products. There were a huge showcase of various types of wedding cakes. There was ample number of varieties of designer cakes and other supporting stuff. Innovative ideas were well expressed; some edible stuff really left everyone amazed.

People all around the world explored the expo and also done blogging for future references, also some people were promoting and launching new products on that platform.

We are Grateful that Mrs. Krishna Tiwari Ma'am, the joint Secretary of Rahul Education, has joined during this journey

The students learned many things like chocolate ganache, types of moulds and various types of food colors and essence.

The educational trip was very knowledgeable to students and they learnt entrepreneurship skills and various things about cakes chocolates and many more The Dean of Hospitality Studies Mr. Kishor Saha Sir guided the students and explained everything.

The Education Trip was very knowledgeable and Useful to students.
