REPORT on EDUCATIONAL TRIP

On November 23- 2019, educational trip was organized for students of all streams students became part of this motivational and educational trip. students were taken to Zee Studio, Mani Bhavan, RBI Monetary Museum along with Kamla Nehru Park.

Our journey began from college and first stop was Zee Studio. Here students took a tour of studio and actually saw the studio working. Students got to witness live news recording and telecast. Students visited Zee Business, Zee News and Taas 24( Marathi News Channel). Students were excited and happy to visit the studio. This experience was illuminating.

Our next stop was Mani Bhavan. Mani Bhavan was the residence of Mahatma Gandhi in Bombay during 1917- 1934. He launched Satyagrah in 1919 from this place and Civil Disobedience in 1932. So this place holds moral, political and emotional importance in the history of our country. This museum contains various old newspapers cuttings, India's Charter of Freedom, Gandhiji's belongings, flag and several books. Students enjoyed a lot and gained important information.

Moving forward in our tip, we reached Kamla Nehru Park which is a part of the hanging gardens complex in Malabar hill, Mumbai. This park contains famous shoe structure which is based on nursery rhyme "There was an Old Women Who Lived in a Shoe", Students took a short break and had their food there.

Our last stop was RBI Monetary Museum in fort area of Mumbai. This museum is instrumental in documenting and preserving various forms of money. Be it coins, papermoney, various treasury bills, barter exchange and lots more. Students were amazed to see primitive calculators, typewriters, old bank books which were quite big in size. Various primitive coins and paper notes are displayed there. Detailed information is provided there along with the visual presentation of the same. This visit left students and faculties thrilled
