YouTube link: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=735Ivaj5QmM&t=57s>

Objective:

To provide participants with a comprehensive overview of what fundamental analysis entails, its importance in investment decision-making, and its key components. And examine techniques for evaluating industry attractiveness, including Porter's Five Forces analysis, industry life cycle analysis, and competitive dynamics. And also to teach participants how to assess a company's financial statements, including income statements, balance sheets, and cash flow statements, and interpret key financial ratios to gauge its financial health.

Day 3 (12th July, 2020, Timing- 12:00 noon to 1.00 pm):

Monetary Policy and its implication

Role of Central Bank, Money instruments, Impact of interest rates on economy, inflation v/s interest rates.

YouTube link: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=FkqXTUU2vUI&t=1361s>

Objective:

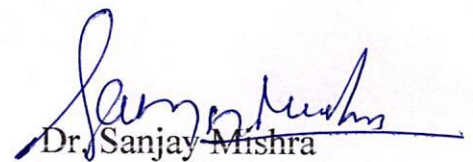

To provide participants with a clear understanding of what monetary policy entails, its objectives, tools, and the role of the Central Bank in implementing and regulating monetary policy. And to explore various money instruments used in monetary policy operations, such as open market operations, reserve requirements, and discount rates, and their impact on the money supply and interest rates.

Feedback:

The webinar was a resounding success, offering valuable insights into investment in mutual funds. The engaged participation gave positive feedback from students looking forwards to organizing more events like this in the future.
