REPORT ON ORIENTATION PROGRAMME

Date: 26th August 2022 (Friday)

Time: 7:45 AM Onwards

Venue: Moot Court (Degree College Building)

Objective:

The Orientation Programme was held to welcome new M.Com students, provide them with a comprehensive overview of their academic year, and introduce them to the resources and support available at the college.

Programme Overview:

The session began with a warm welcome from [Name], who introduced the goals of the orientation. The speaker emphasized the importance of the upcoming academic year and encouraged students to engage actively with the programme. A detailed presentation on the M.Com curriculum was delivered. This included an outline of core subjects, elective options, and the credit system. The speaker also discussed key academic milestones and grading criteria. Faculty members introduced themselves and provided insights into their academic backgrounds and areas of expertise. This segment aimed to help students become familiar with their instructors and understand what to expect in their courses. Information on available academic resources was provided, including the library, online databases, and research facilities. The speaker highlighted how these resources could be used to support academic success. Key administrative details were shared, such as registration procedures, examination schedules, and important deadlines. The session also covered academic policies and procedures. The Principal Sir Dr Sanjay Mishra gave detailed for various student support services, including counselling, career services, and extracurricular activities. Emphasis was placed on the importance of utilizing these services for personal and academic development.

Feedback:

Students found the programme informative and appreciated the clarity on the curriculum and administrative processes. The opportunity to meet faculty members and learn about support services was well-received. Some students suggested additional detailed sessions on specific academic topics and more information on career development opportunities.
