Orientation Programme Report for M.Com – II Students

Date: 28th June 2023

Time: 8:00 AM Onwards

Venue: Room 206 B (Degree College Old Building)

Objective:

The Orientation Programme for the M.Com – II students was organized to provide an overview of the upcoming academic year, update students on important academic and administrative changes, and prepare them for the next phase of their studies.

Programme Overview:

The session began with a welcome address from [Name], who outlined the objectives of the orientation and emphasized the importance of the upcoming academic year. A detailed presentation on the curriculum for the M.Com – II year was given. This included information on core and elective subjects, assessment methods, and any changes or updates in the syllabus. Faculty members introduced themselves and provided insights into their respective subjects, research interests, and the expectations they have for the students. The orientation program was carry forward by Principal Sir who provided information on available academic resources, including the library, online databases, and study materials. The session highlighted how students can effectively utilize these resources for their studies. Important administrative updates were discussed, including examination schedules, deadlines for assignments, and registration procedures. The speaker also addressed any changes in academic policies.

Feedback:

Students appreciated the thorough overview of the academic year and the opportunity to interact with faculty members. The clarity provided on administrative updates was particularly valued. Some students requested additional sessions focused on specific academic topics and more detailed information on career opportunities.
