REPORT ORIENTATION PROGRAM

Date: July 1, 2024

Venue: College Auditorium

Event: Orientation Day for BAF Department

The Orientation Day for the Bachelor of Accounting and Finance (BAF) department commenced with a warm welcome by student anchors, Ms Shahin (TY) & Ms Mujeeba (SY) They enthusiastically greeted the fresh batch of students and set an engaging tone for the event. Their dynamic and lively anchoring kept the audience entertained and attentive throughout the program.

The event officially began with the welcome ceremony for Principal Dr. Sanjay Mishra and other dignitaries. The ceremony included the lighting of the ceremonial lamp by Principal Sir, the Coordinator of the BAF Department Mr Sunil Vishwakarma, and esteemed faculty members symbolizing the auspicious beginning of the academic journey. This was followed by the National Anthem.

Principal Dr. Sanjay Mishra Sir delivered an insightful and inspiring speech, covering several key aspects. Principal Sir began by providing a brief history of the college, highlighting its legacy of excellence in education. He spoke about the college's mission to provide quality education and foster holistic development in students. Sir elaborated on the implementation of the National Education Policy 2020. He explained how the NEP 2020 aims to revamp the Indian education system, emphasizing multidisciplinary learning, flexibility in course choices, and a focus on skill development. He assured students that the college is committed to aligning its curriculum with the new policy to enhance their learning experience. He also provided an overview of the various facilities available on campus, including state-of-the-art classrooms, a well-equipped library, modern computer labs, sports facilities, and student support services. He encouraged students to make the most of these resources for their academic and personal growth. He discussed the exam structure for the BAF program, outlining the continuous assessment system, mid-semester and end-semester exams, and project work. He emphasized the importance of regular study and active participation in class to achieve academic success Sir also introduced students with ABC unique identifier for managing academic credits under the Academic Bank of Credits system. Which Streamlines credit transfers, supports lifelong learning, and ensures academic mobility. Sir stressed the importance of overall development, urging students to engage in extracurricular activities, internships, and community service. He highlighted various clubs and societies within the college that provide opportunities for leadership, creativity, and personal growth.

The event concluded with a heartfelt vote of thanks delivered by Asst.Prof Saatish Pandey. He expressed gratitude to Principal Sir for his motivating words and to the dignitaries for their presence. He also thanked the student volunteers, faculty members, and the organizing committee for their hard work in making the event a success. He wished the new students a fulfilling and enriching journey ahead.

Objectives of Program:

The primary objectives of the orientation program were:

- To introduce students to the NEP 2020 policy and its implications for their academic journey.
- To explain the details of On-Job Training and its significance in the curriculum.
- To introduce Research Methodology and its role in academic and professional development.
- To explain the changes in the examination pattern under the NEP 2020 policy.
- To acquaint the student with course outcome and program outcome.

Outcome of program:

- Students gained a comprehensive understanding of NEP 2020, including its emphasis on multidisciplinary learning, flexibility in course selection, and the integration of vocational education.
- They recognized the value of practical exposure and real-world experience in preparing for the demands of the finance and accounting industry.
- They understood how these changes aimed to provide a more comprehensive evaluation of their knowledge and skills.

The Orientation Programme was a resounding success, achieving its intended objectives of introducing the college, facilitating a smooth transition for first-year students, and promoting a sense of community. The event left the students feeling enthusiastic, well-informed, and excited to embark on their college journey. With the foundation laid during this orientation, the first-year students are well-prepared to embrace their academic and personal growth in the forthcoming years at Shree L R Tiwari Degree College.
