REPORT ORIENTATION PROGRAMME

Date: 15th September 2023

Time: 10:00 AM – 1:00 PM

Venue: Moot Court (Degree College Old Building)

The session began with a warm welcome to the M.com Part –I students M.Com Faculties and Principal Dr Sanjay Mishra sir.

The Program was further continued by Principal Sir who gave an overview of the M.Com curriculum was provided, including a detailed explanation of core and elective courses, assessment methods, and key academic milestones. The Principal Sir highlighted An overview of NEP 2020 was provided, including its key features, objectives, and the changes it brings to the higher education landscape. The speaker explained how NEP 2020 aims to promote multidisciplinary education, flexibility, and skill development. The new curriculum structure, including credit-based system, choice-based credit system (CBCS), and skill-based courses, was explained. Students were informed about the modular approach and how it allows for greater flexibility in course selection.

Objective:

The Orientation Programme for the M.Com – I students aimed to introduce new students to the Master of Commerce program, provide essential information about the curriculum and resources, and facilitate a smooth transition into their academic journey.

Feedback:

Students appreciated the comprehensive overview of the course and the opportunity to meet faculty members. Some students requested more detailed information on elective options and internship opportunities.

Conclusion:

The Orientation Programme successfully provided new students with a foundational understanding of the M.Com – I course, introduced them to key resources and support services, and addressed their initial queries. The department is committed to ensuring that students have a productive and rewarding academic experience.
