REPORT ON ORIENTATION PROGRAM FOR FYBAMMC

Date: 5th July 2024

Organized By: Department of BAMMC

Date: 04th July 2024

Venue: College Auditorium

Speaker: Dr. Sanjay Mishra

Introduction:

The Department of BAMMC hosted an orientation on 4th July 2024 for FYBAMMC in the Seminar Hall of the College Campus. The event featured an insightful talk by Dr. Sanjay Mishra, a renowned expert in the field.

Objective:

- To provide welcome address to the new students
- To offer an introduction of the College
- To give an overview of the Curriculum and NEP 2020
- To provide an opportunity to introduce the professors
- To take up Q&A Session
- To offer Campus Tour to the students

Summary of the Event:

The orientation began at 11:00 am with a warm welcome address by the anchors of the Department of BAMMC. The welcome speech emphasized the introduction about the college importance of this new academic journey and the exciting opportunities that lie ahead. Students were encouraged to make the most of their time in college by engaging actively in both academic and extracurricular activities. Following the welcome address, the session provided students with an overview of the college's history, mission, and vision.

- The Principal highlighted the various facilities available on campus, such as the library, computer labs, and student support services, ensuring that students were aware of the resources at their disposal.
- This session included a detailed explanation of the course structure, core subjects, electives, and specializations.

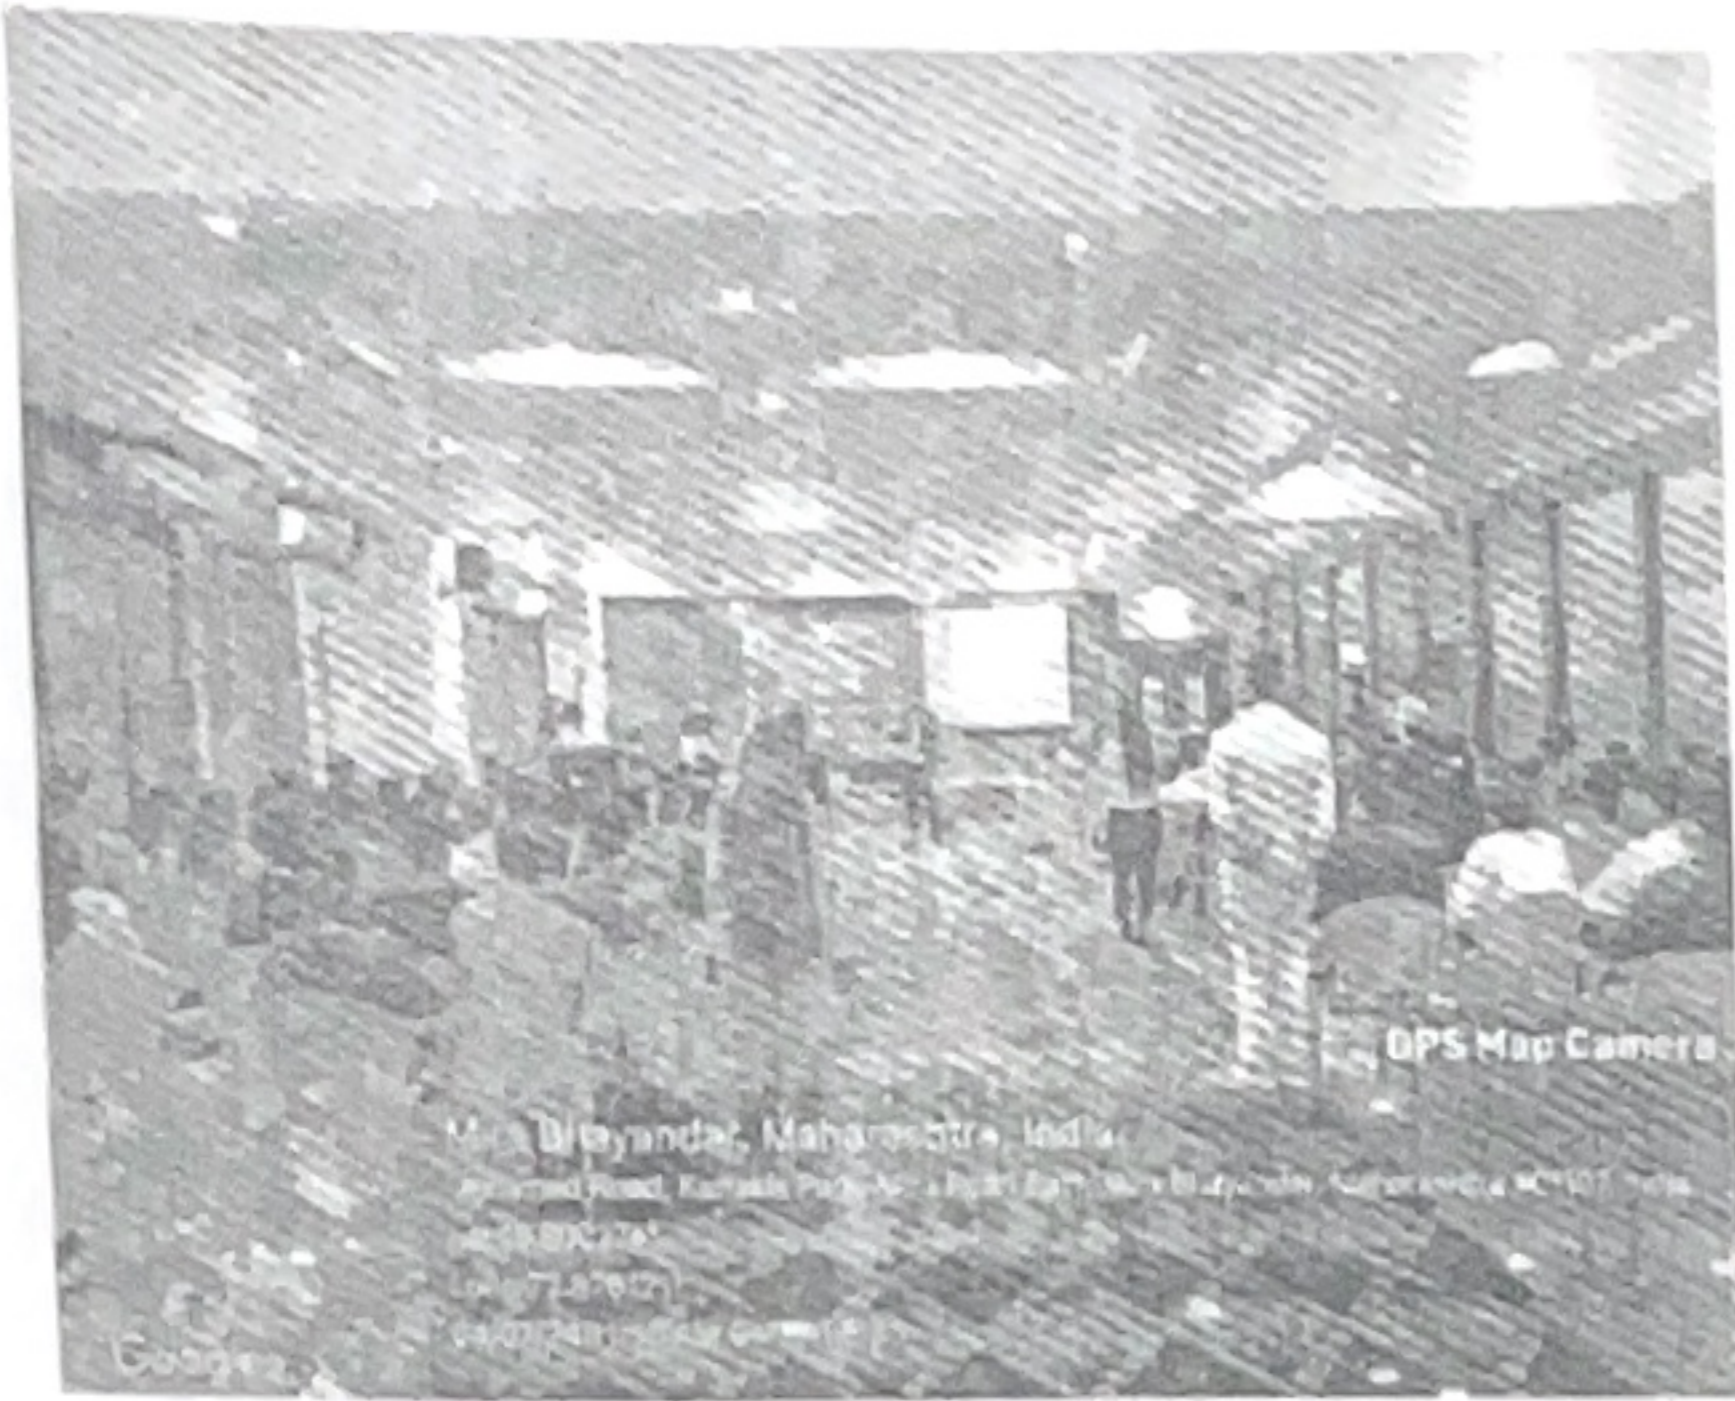

- Additionally, the principal discussed the implications of the National Education Policy (NEP) 2020 on the BAMMC program, highlighting changes and improvements aimed at enhancing the quality of education and making it more flexible and multidisciplinary.
- The "Meet Our Professors" segment allowed students to interact with the faculty members who will be guiding them throughout their academic journey. Each professor briefly introduced themselves, shared their academic and professional backgrounds, and described the subjects they would be teaching. This session helped establish a connection between students and faculty, fostering a sense of community and support.
- An interactive Q & A session followed, providing students with the opportunity to ask questions and seek clarification on various aspects of the BAMMC program and college life. The faculty addressed queries related to the curriculum, career prospects, extracurricular activities, and student support services.
- This session was highly engaging and informative, addressing many concerns of the new students. The orientation concluded with a guided campus tour led by department faculties.
- The tour covered key areas of the college, including academic buildings, the library, laboratories, the canteen, and recreational facilities. The tour helped students familiarize themselves with the campus layout, making it easier for them to navigate their new environment.

Conclusion:

The orientation program was a resounding success, effectively achieving its objectives of welcoming and integrating first-year BAMMC students into the college community. The comprehensive agenda ensured that students received essential information, met their professors, and became acquainted with the college campus. The event set a positive tone for the new academic year, leaving students excited and prepared for their journey ahead.
