Report on Discussion On Union Budget 2024

Organized By: Department Of BAMMC (Bachelor of Arts in Mass Media and Communication)

Date: 31st July, 2024

Time: 10:00 AM to 12:00 PM

Venue: Classroom no. 204

Introduction: The Department of BAMMC (Bachelor of Arts in Mass Media and Communication) organized a seminar on 31st July, 2024. The seminar commenced with a welcome address, who introduced the topic and outlined the importance of understanding the Union Budget. The Finance Minister, Nirmala Sitharaman presented the Union Budget 2024-25, which was the focal point of the discussion.

Objectives:

- The webinar aims to Analyze the economic priorities set by the government, focusing on various sectors.
- To discuss budget allocations, provisions, and policy reforms aimed at fostering development in these sectors.
- To evaluate the budget's expected impact on overall economic growth, fiscal policies, Social Welfare, Inclusive Growth, and Job Creation
- To discuss the broader implications of these strategies for the economy and public finances.

Outcomes:

The seminar included presentations and interactive discussions, focusing on the relevance of the budget to students' academic and future professional lives. The main points discussed were:

1. Understanding Economic Indicators:

- Explanation of key economic terms such as GDP growth rate and fiscal deficit, and their significance.
- Discussion on how these indicators reflect the overall health of the economy and impact everyday life.

2. Sectorial Impact:

- Healthcare: Analysis of how increased healthcare funding might affect public health and future career opportunities in the healthcare sector.

- Education: Exploration of how investments in education could enhance learning resources and support future academic and professional aspirations.
3. Tax Reforms:
- Simplified explanation of the new tax policies and their implications for individuals and businesses.
 - Discussion on how these changes might influence students' future career paths and financial planning.
4. Social Welfare and Employment:
- Review of the social welfare programs and their potential to create job opportunities and support various communities.
 - Discussion on how these initiatives might impact students' career prospects and societal contributions.
5. Investment Climate:
- Overview of how improvements in infrastructure and investment policies could shape the future job market and economic landscape.

Interactive Session:

Students engaged in an interactive Q&A session, where they asked questions about the budget's details and its impact on their fields of study.

Key topics included:

- How the budget's focus on education could affect scholarships and academic funding.
- The potential effects of tax reforms on young entrepreneurs and start-ups.
- Opportunities for students in sectors receiving increased funding, such as healthcare and infrastructure.

Conclusion:

The seminar concluded with a summary of the key points discussed and emphasized the importance of understanding budgetary policies for future career planning and economic awareness. Students were encouraged to stay informed about financial policies and consider their implications for their personal and professional lives.
