Mode: Online

Speaker: Mr. Zaheer Ali

The Department of Research & Development and IIC of SLRTDC had Organised Online Session On "Entrepreneurship skill, Attitude and Behaviour Development." The speaker Mr. Zaheer Ali captivated the attendees by his charismatic style of delivering complex information in a lucid way. The session was held on online mode at 11 a.m.

Objectives of the session:

- The primary objective of the session on "Entrepreneurship Skill, Attitude, and behaviour Development" was to equip participants with the essential knowledge, mindset, and behaviours required for successful entrepreneurship.
- The session aimed to foster an understanding of the key entrepreneurial skills, attitudes, and behaviours necessary for innovation, risk-taking, and sustainable business growth.

Outcomes:

- Understanding Entrepreneurial Mindset: Participants gained insights into how adopting an entrepreneurial mindset can help them identify opportunities, overcome challenges, and navigate uncertainties in the business environment.
- Developing Problem-Solving Skills: Participants engaged in interactive exercises and case studies to analyse real-world business problems, brainstorm innovative solutions, and understand the importance of creativity and critical thinking in entrepreneurial ventures.
- Building Confidence and Self-Efficacy: Through role-playing activities and group discussions, participants were encouraged to reflect on their strengths, weaknesses, and past achievements, fostering a sense of self-belief and empowerment necessary for entrepreneurial success.

- Managing Risk and Failure: The session addressed the fear of failure and provided participants with strategies for managing risk, learning from failures, and bouncing back stronger.
- Developing Leadership and Team-building Skills: Participants learned about different leadership styles, the importance of delegating tasks, and fostering a collaborative work culture conducive to creativity and innovation.

Overall, the session on "Entrepreneurship Skill, Attitude, and Behaviour Development" provided participants with valuable insights, practical tools, and strategies for fostering an entrepreneurial mindset, developing essential skills, and cultivating behaviours conducive to success in the dynamic and competitive world of entrepreneurship. Participants left the session inspired and empowered to pursue their entrepreneurial aspirations with confidence and determination.
