Report on "Election Literacy"

Date & Time: 24 October 2024, 11:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.

Venue: Room 502, 5th Floor, New Building

Organized by: DLLE Committee (Extension Faculties & Student Managers)

Coordinator: Asst. Prof. Kshitij Jha, DLLE Coordinator

Introduction

In keeping with our commitment to foster informed and responsible citizenship, the DLLE Committee organized an "Election Literacy" session. This initiative aimed to demystify the voting process, clarify electoral rights, and equip students with the analytical tools needed to assess candidates and manifestos critically.

Objectives

1. Empower Yourself: Instill appreciation for voting as the cornerstone of democracy.
2. Know Your Rights: Demystify eligibility criteria, registration procedures, and EVM/ballot usage.
3. Make Informed Choices: Provide guidelines on evaluating party manifestos, fact-checking, and reliable news sources.
4. Be Future Ready: Prepare attendees for active, responsible participation in forthcoming local and national elections.

Keynote speaker: Dr Akansha Asar

Event Highlights:

1. Voter's Pledge Ceremony:

Participants were encouraged to take the Election Commission's Voter's Pledge, committing to responsible voting practices and raising awareness within their communities.

2. Informative Session on the Importance of Voting:

A comprehensive session was conducted to explain the significance of voting in a \ democracy. Speakers highlighted how each individual vote can make a difference in shaping the nation's future. Real-life examples were shared to demonstrate how close election outcomes can be influenced by just a few votes, emphasizing that every vote counts.

3. Electoral Process Education:

Students were educated on various aspects of the election process, including how to register to vote, verifying voter information, and understanding Electronic Voting Machines (EVMs) and Voter-Verified Paper Audit Trail (VVPAT) systems.

4. Interactive Activities:

Engaging activities like quizzes, debates, and discussions on ethical voting and the importance of fair elections helped foster a deeper understanding of democratic values.

Over 75 students actively participated in the event. Their enthusiastic involvement highlighted the eagerness of the youth to be informed and responsible voters.

Outcome:

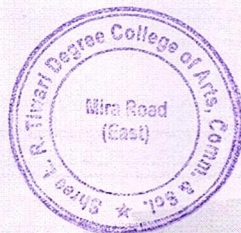

The event achieved its goal of spreading electoral awareness. Students and participants left with a reinforced belief in the power of their vote and an understanding of the responsibility that comes with it. The event also served as a platform to motivate first-time voters to participate in upcoming elections.

Conclusion

The Election Literacy session successfully translated abstract civic concepts into practical know-how, leaving students not only ready to exercise their franchise but also inspired to serve as ambassadors of democratic participation.
