Report

Light of Goodness

Date: 25th October 2024

Venue: Shree L.R. Tiwari Degree College Campus

Organized by: Department of Lifelong Learning and Extension (D.L.L.E) Unit

Objective:

- Support the economic empowerment of Adivasi women by providing a platform to sell their handcrafted Diyas.
- Celebrate and preserve the traditional craftsmanship and cultural heritage of the Adivasi community.
- Strengthen the connection between the campus community and local Adivasi artisans through meaningful interaction and support.
- Encourage the spirit of entrepreneurship and self-reliance among Adivasi women through exposure and sales opportunities.

Participants:

- D.L.L.E Volunteers from Shree L.R. Tiwari Degree College
- Faculty Members and Administrative Staff
- Student managers and community members

Event Highlights:

Awareness Campaign:

- Volunteers conducted a campaign to encourage the use of eco-friendly products and discourage the use of non-biodegradable decorations during festivals.
- Informative posters and banners were displayed to emphasize the environmental benefits of choosing handmade clay diyas over synthetic alternatives.

Sales and Promotion:

- Beautifully handcrafted clay diyas, sourced from local artisans, were displayed and sold at the college campus.
- Students actively participated in promoting the diyas, explaining their cultural and environmental significance to buyers.

Collaborative Effort:

- The DLLE team collaborated with local potters, ensuring that the event supported their livelihoods during the festive season.
- Faculty and staff members contributed to the initiative by purchasing diyas and spreading the word.

Outcomes:

- Participants adopted sustainable and eco-friendly practices during the festive season.
- Increased support for local artisans through the purchase of eco-friendly and handmade products.
- Enhanced sense of social responsibility among students towards the environment and community..

Acknowledgments:

The college extends its heartfelt gratitude to the local artisans for their collaboration and dedication. Special thanks to the D.L.L.E Coordinator, volunteers, and all participants for their enthusiastic involvement in making the event a success.
