Report

D.L.L.E visit to Vaitarna

Date: 27th & 28th December, 2025

Time: 05:00 PM

Venue: Kasarli village, Vaitarna

Objectives:

- To foster meaningful interaction between college students and the rural community, promoting mutual understanding and social responsibility.
- To enhance students' soft skills such as communication, leadership, and teamwork by involving them in awareness campaigns, surveys, and educational activities.
- To apply the principles of lifelong learning and extension work in a real-world rural setting, as part of their academic and social development.

Camp Details:

The Department of Lifelong Learning and Extension (DLLE) students actively participated in a village camp held at Vaitarna Kasarli, where a variety of socially relevant and awareness-driven activities were carried out to engage with the local community. The camp served as a bridge between academic learning and grassroots-level social work.

Activities Conducted:

1. Skit Performance on "Drug Awareness":
A powerful street play was performed by the DLLE students to spread awareness about the harmful effects of drug addiction. The skit emphasized the importance of mental and physical well-being, especially targeting the youth of the village.
2. Social Outreach Program:
As part of the social outreach initiative, students conducted informative and engaging sessions with villagers. A specially designed poster highlighting the outreach goals and themes was also displayed, attracting the attention of the villagers and encouraging participation.
3. Gifts Distribution:
DLLE extension students distributed useful gifts and essential items to children and families as a gesture of goodwill and support, bringing smiles and fostering community bonding.
4. Project Presentations (CP & SDP Students):
Students from Career Project (CP) and Skill development program (SDP) presented their research topics and field insights. These presentations aimed to raise awareness and educate villagers on career options, women empowerment, and societal development.

5. Interactive Sessions with Villagers:

Students initiated social interactions with the villagers, including group discussions and personal conversations, to better understand their lifestyle, issues, and aspirations. These dialogues built trust and opened channels for learning and mutual respect.

6. Cultural Exchange and Engagement:

Through informal sessions, the students also got a chance to experience the local culture, traditions, and values, deepening their appreciation for rural life.

Feedback and Recommendations:

- The skit on drug awareness was particularly well-received and left a strong impression on the youth and elders alike.
- The CP and SDP student presentations were informative and relevant, contributing to the villagers' understanding of career planning and various skill development techniques.
- The gift distribution added a personal and emotional touch to the camp, strengthening community ties.
- Involving local panchayat members or NGOs could improve resource availability and coordination for future camps.
- Planning post-camp visits or virtual follow-ups can help in maintaining a long-term relationship with the village community.

Outcomes:

- Students developed a deeper understanding of rural life, its challenges, and the need for inclusive development through direct interaction with villagers.
- The community actively participated in the skit, presentations, and social outreach activities, reflecting a positive response and trust toward the DLLE initiative.
- Students gained confidence in public speaking, community interaction, and presenting socially relevant topics through CP and SDP project presentations.
- The street play on drug addiction left a strong impact on village youth, initiating conversations about mental health and substance abuse.
