Celebration of Librarian Day

Event Name: Librarian's Day (Celebrating Dr. S.R. Ranganathan's Birthday)

Organized by: Library & Literary Committee

Venue: College Library

Date: 12th August 2024

Time: 11:30 PM

Introduction

Librarian's Day is an annual event organized by the Library Department to honour the legacy of Dr. S.R. Ranganathan, who is widely regarded as the Father of Library Science in India. Dr. Ranganathan's birthday, 12th August, is celebrated as Librarian's Day to recognize the significance of libraries and the contribution of librarians in promoting access to knowledge and information. This year's celebration will feature a series of non-technical activities aimed at engaging the entire college community. The event will include a speech by the esteemed Principal, Dr. Sanjay Mishra, followed by other symbolic gestures such as a lighting of a diya (lamp) and a cultural performance. These activities are designed to foster a deeper connection with the library's resources and to celebrate the role of librarians in the academic development of students and faculty.

Objectives of the Event:

1. Acknowledge the role of librarians as educators, information specialists, and community leaders.
2. Provide a platform for librarians to share best practices, discuss challenges, and explore new trends in library science.
3. Showcase innovative library services, resources, and technologies to the community.
4. Provide mentorship opportunities and professional development resources.

Event Description :

The event commenced with the lighting of a Lamp by Dr. Sanjay Mishra, the Principal of the college. Following the traditional lamp lighting, Dr. Sanjay Mishra, our respected Principal, delivered an inspiring speech on the significance of Dr. S.R. Ranganathan's contributions to library science and the continued relevance of libraries in today's digital age. His speech emphasized the evolving role of libraries in fostering a culture of reading, critical thinking, and lifelong learning. He highlighted how libraries are no longer just repositories of books but dynamic spaces that promote digital literacy, research, and community engagement. He also discussed the implementation of Ranganathan's Five Laws of Library Science, which continue to guide library practices worldwide. Through his thought-provoking address, Dr. Mishra aims to inspire students, faculty, and library professionals to appreciate the enduring value of libraries.

and the innovative ways they adapt to meet the demands of the 21st century. His speech serves as a reminder of the profound impact that libraries have had—and will continue to have—on shaping minds and societies.

Conclusion:

The Librarians' Day celebration successfully met its objectives by providing a platform to honour the contributions of librarians, foster professional growth, and raise awareness about the evolving role of libraries in society. The event facilitated meaningful discussions, knowledge exchange, and networking opportunities, leaving participants inspired and motivated.
