REPORT

NATIONAL VOTERS DAY

Event: Debate and Open Discussion on National Voters Day

Date: January 25, 2025

Venue: Classroom 107

Time: 08: 00 AM

In line with the directives of the Election Commission of India, the B.Com Department, in collaboration with the NSS Unit, successfully organized a Debate and Open Discussion event on the occasion of National Voters Day 2025. The event, as per the notice issued on January 24, 2025, took place on January 25, 2025, at 08:00 AM in Classroom 107. Over 100 enthusiastic students participated, actively engaging in the debate and discussion.

Event Overview

Debate on "Voting: A Responsibility or a Choice?"

The event commenced with a lively debate on the topic, "Voting: A Responsibility or a Choice?" Students passionately discussed the role of voting in a democracy, examining it from both a civic duty perspective and as a personal choice. This debate encouraged critical thinking, helping participants understand the significance of voting and its impact on shaping the democratic fabric of the nation.

Open Discussion on "Challenges in Achieving 100% Voter Participation"

Following the debate, an open discussion was held on the topic "Challenges in Achieving 100% Voter Participation." Students explored various barriers to voter participation, including lack of awareness, voter apathy, logistical challenges, and exclusionary practices. The discussion was insightful, as students proposed solutions and strategies to improve voter turnout and participation in elections.

Objectives of the Event

- To promote awareness about voting as a key democratic responsibility.
- To encourage critical thinking through debate on various perspectives related to voting.
- To identify challenges and discuss possible solutions for achieving 100% voter participation.

Outcomes of the Event

- Students gained a deeper understanding of the importance of voting and the hurdles in increasing voter participation.
- The event sparked thoughtful discussions on how to address voter apathy and ensure more inclusive voter engagement.
- Participants felt motivated to take an active role in the democratic process, underscoring the collective responsibility to vote.

The Debate and Open Discussion event on National Voters Day 2025 was a resounding success. The active participation of students, along with the insightful debates and discussions, made the event both engaging and informative. It effectively promoted awareness about voting and encouraged students to reflect on the challenges of achieving full voter participation.

The event concluded with a collective voting pledge taken by all participants, reinforcing their commitment to responsible citizenship and participation in the democratic process. The efforts of the B.Com Department, NSS Unit, and the students made this occasion memorable.
