Introduction:

An interactive session on the topic “Decoding the Budget: Comparative Insights from 2024 & 2025” was organized for B.Com students on 7th February 2025 at 8:00 a.m. in Room No. 107, Old Building. The session was conducted by Asst. Prof. Bhumika Vyas, who guided students through a comparative analysis of two recent Union Budgets.

Objectives of the Session:

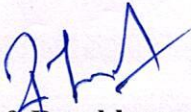

- To compare key highlights of the Union Budgets 2024 and 2025.
- To understand budget concepts and their real-world impact.
- To build analytical skills through budget analysis.

Prof. Vyas presented the session in an engaging and student-friendly manner, using real-time examples, visuals, and case-based discussions to explain the structure and significance of the budgets. Emphasis was placed on understanding budget allocations, fiscal priorities, and their implications for the commerce sector and the broader economy.

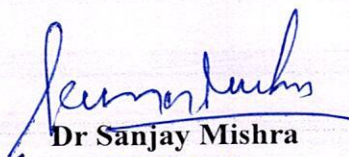

Outcomes of the Session:

- Students understood key differences and similarities between Union Budgets 2024 and 2025.
- Learners gained insight into budgetary concepts and their practical implications.
- Students developed analytical skills to evaluate government fiscal policies effectively.

The session concluded with a Q&A interaction, where students actively participated, asked questions, and shared insights. The session was highly informative and contributed to bridging the gap between theoretical knowledge and practical application in public finance.
