Report:

An orientation session was organized for the Second Year (SYBAF) and Third Year (TYBAF) students of the BAF department at Shree L. R. Tiwari Degree College of Arts, Commerce and Science to begin the academic year 2025–2026 on an informed and positive note.

The orientation program was conducted in two parts: the Departmental Orientation followed by the College Orientation, ensuring that students received detailed insights into both academic and institutional aspects.

1. Department Orientation

The session commenced with a warm welcome and introduction by Asst. Prof. Suman Gupta, setting the tone for the event.

Dr. Akanksha Gujrati Asar, BAF Coordinator, addressed the students and provided a detailed overview of the department's academic plan for SYBAF and TYBAF. She elaborated on the subject structure, examination patterns, academic calendar, attendance policy, and internal assessments.

She also highlighted co-curricular and extra-curricular activities, industry visits, workshops, seminars, and placement-related initiatives, encouraging students to actively participate and build their skillsets during the academic year.

The department session concluded with a Vote of Thanks delivered by Asst. Prof. Saatish Pandey, expressing gratitude to the faculty, students, and organizers for their participation and support.

2. College Orientation

Post the departmental session, students were guided to the Auditorium for the College Orientation. The college-level session commenced with a welcome address by Dr. Vaishali Kothiya, IQAC Coordinator, who highlighted the college's commitment to quality education and continuous improvement.

Principal Dr. Sanjay Mishra then addressed the students. He shared insights into the overall functioning of the college and highlighted the numerous new opportunities being introduced this year. These include upgraded infrastructure, career enhancement programs, student exchange initiatives, and participation in inter-collegiate events.
