Introduction:

Entrepreneurship plays a vital role in fostering innovation, economic growth, and employment generation. With the objective of nurturing entrepreneurial mindset, start-up culture, and innovation-driven learning among students, Shree L. R. Tiwari Degree College of Arts, Commerce & Science inaugurated the Entrepreneurship Development Cell (E-Cell) & Incubation Centre on 1st December, 2025.

The inauguration was organised under the guidance of the Research, Innovation, Incubation & IPR Cell and the Institute Innovation Council (IIC). The event aimed to create awareness about entrepreneurship, start-ups, innovation ecosystems, and the importance of research and intellectual property in business development.

Session Objectives:

1. To formally inaugurate the Entrepreneurship Development Cell (E-Cell) in the college.
2. To promote start-up culture and entrepreneurial thinking among students.
3. To create awareness about innovation, incubation, and research-driven entrepreneurship.
4. To motivate students to explore self-employment and start-up opportunities.
5. To strengthen the institutional framework supporting entrepreneurship and IPR activities.

Outcome of the Session:

1. Successful inauguration of the Entrepreneurship Development Cell (E-Cell).
2. Enhanced awareness among students regarding entrepreneurship, start-ups, and innovation.
3. Motivation among students to pursue entrepreneurial careers and research-based ventures.
4. Strengthened collaboration between E-Cell, IIC, and IPR initiatives of the college.
5. Increased student interest in incubation, business idea development, and start-up activities.
