Overview: The National Service Scheme (NSS) played a crucial role in supporting the activities and arrangements for NAAC (National Assessment and Accreditation Council) Visit, ensuring smooth execution of the event.

Objectives:

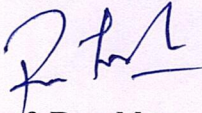

- Assist in the organization and management of NAAC Visit activities.
- Ensure a seamless experience for the NAAC accreditation team.
- Foster a culture of volunteerism and service among students.

Preparation: NSS volunteers prepared the campus by setting up seating arrangements, informational booths, and presentation areas. They collaborated with faculty members to ensure all necessary resources were available.

Event Execution: On the days of the event, NSS volunteers managed registration desks, guided visitors, and assisted in the logistics of various activities. They facilitated the smooth running of presentations, workshops, and discussions. Volunteers also provided refreshments and ensured the cleanliness and maintenance of the event areas.

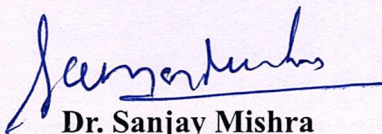

Outcome:

- Successful organization and management of NAAC Visit activities, ensuring a smooth event.
- Positive experience for the NAAC accreditation team facilitated by efficient arrangements.
- Increased student involvement in volunteerism and service, fostering a culture of dedication and support.
