Report

Event Name: World Without Wars and Violence Seminar

Organized By: NSS Unit of Royal College

Venue: Royal College

Date: 23rd September 2024

Time: 11:00 am onwards

Overview: The NSS unit of Royal College organized the "World Without Wars and Violence Seminar" on 23rd September 2024 to promote peace, non-violence, and global harmony. The event aimed to educate students on the impact of violence and war on society and to encourage peaceful conflict resolution and cooperation.

Objectives:

- Educate participants on the principles of peace, non-violence, and conflict resolution.
- Encourage a sense of global responsibility and citizenship among students and faculty.
- Enhance critical thinking and analytical skills by exploring historical and contemporary examples of peace-building efforts.
- Motivate participants to engage in peace-building activities and initiatives within their communities and beyond.

Preparation: NSS volunteers collaborated with guest speakers, peace activists, and faculty members to structure an informative and engaging seminar. Informational materials, posters, and presentations were prepared to emphasize key messages about non-violence and global peace initiatives.

Event Execution: The event included: Keynote speeches by experts on peacebuilding and non-violent movements. A panel discussion on the role of youth in promoting global peace. Interactive Q&A sessions where students expressed their thoughts and concerns. A pledge-taking ceremony encouraging participants to support peace initiatives.

Outcome:

- Enhanced Understanding of Peace Principles – Participants gained knowledge of non-violence, conflict resolution, and global citizenship.
- Improved Critical Thinking – Encouraged analytical skills through discussions on historical and contemporary peace-building efforts.
- Increased Community Engagement – Inspired participants to actively contribute to peace-building initiatives in their communities.
