Report

Event Name: Uttan Beach Cleanup

Organized By: For Future India NGO

Venue: Uttan Beach

Date: 2nd October 2024

Time: 7:00 am onwards

Overview: The NSS unit participated in the "Uttan Beach Cleanup" event on 2nd October 2024 to commemorate Mahatma Gandhi Jayanti by promoting environmental consciousness and cleanliness. The event aimed to instill a sense of responsibility among students and faculty members toward maintaining a cleaner and greener environment.

Objectives:

- Promote environmental awareness and cleanliness in public spaces.
- Encourage active participation in community service.
- Highlight the importance of reducing plastic waste and maintaining ecological balance.

Preparation: NSS volunteers coordinated with local authorities and environmental organizations to ensure the proper disposal of collected waste. Essential cleaning supplies such as gloves, garbage bags, and masks were arranged. Awareness posters and banners were also prepared to educate the public on environmental conservation.

Event Execution:

The event included: A cleanliness drive along the Uttan Beach shoreline, collecting plastic waste and other litter. Awareness sessions on the harmful effects of pollution and the significance of responsible waste disposal. Encouragement for beachgoers to maintain cleanliness and adopt eco-friendly habits. Proper segregation and disposal of collected waste with the support of local municipal authorities.

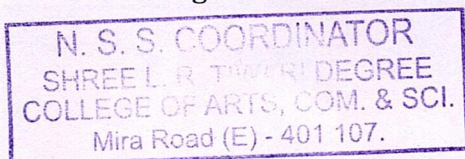

Outcome:

- Students learned the importance of cleanliness and sustainability.
- Volunteers contributed to a cleaner beach through hands-on efforts.
- The cleanup helped in waste removal, promoting ecological balance.
