Report

Event Name: CCM Skit

Organized By: NSS Unit, Shree L.R. Tiwari Degree College

Venue: GCC Club, Mira Road

Date: 15th December 2024

Time: 9:00 am onwards

Overview: The NSS unit organized the "CCM Skit" event on 15th December 2024 to spread awareness about critical social issues through theatrical performances. The event aimed to engage students in creative storytelling, highlighting themes related to community health, social responsibility, and ethical values.

Objectives:

- Raise Awareness – Educate the community about cancer prevention, early detection, and the importance of regular health check-ups.
- Promote Healthy Lifestyles – Encourage healthier habits, including balanced nutrition, exercise, and avoiding risk factors like tobacco and alcohol.
- Engage Through Performance – Use an interactive and impactful skit to effectively communicate important health messages in an engaging way.

Preparation: NSS volunteers collaborated with drama mentors and faculty members to prepare impactful skits. Scripts were developed focusing on various social themes, and rehearsals were conducted to ensure a powerful delivery. Costumes, props, and stage arrangements were managed by volunteers.

Event Execution: The event included: Theatrical performances highlighting issues such as mental health, gender equality, and environmental sustainability. Interactive discussions on the themes portrayed in the skits, engaging the audience in meaningful conversations. Encouragement for students to express their perspectives through acting and storytelling. Special recognition for outstanding performances that effectively conveyed social messages

Outcome:

- Increased community awareness about cancer prevention, early detection, and the benefits of regular health check-ups.
- Improved adoption of healthy lifestyle practices, such as better nutrition, regular exercise, and avoidance of harmful habits like smoking and alcohol consumption.
- Greater engagement and retention of health messages through interactive and impactful skit performances
