Report

Event Name: Leadership Programs

Organized By: M. Visvesvaraya centre of excellence

Date: 25th July 2024

Time: 10:30 am onwards

Overview:

The M. Visvesvaraya Centre of Excellence organized a Leadership Program to equip students and staff with essential leadership skills and techniques for personal and professional growth. NSS volunteers from Shree L. R. Tiwari Degree College of Arts, Commerce, and Science actively participated in the event, gaining valuable insights into leadership and teamwork.

Objectives:

- To develop leadership skills among participants, including NSS volunteers.
- To encourage teamwork and collaboration.
- To foster personal and professional growth.

Preparation:

The campus was well-prepared with seminar halls and workshop areas. NSS volunteers played a crucial role in assisting with event preparations, coordinating schedules, and managing logistics. Their involvement ensured the smooth execution of the event while providing them with hands-on leadership experience.

Event Execution:

The program commenced with an inspiring opening ceremony led by the Principal, followed by keynote speeches from esteemed industry leaders. The event featured engaging workshops and interactive sessions on key leadership topics such as communication, decision-making, and conflict resolution. NSS volunteers actively participated in these sessions, contributing to group discussions and team-building activities. Their enthusiastic involvement demonstrated their commitment to personal growth and social responsibility.

Outcome:

- Enhanced Leadership Skills: NSS volunteers developed practical leadership abilities, improving their decision-making and problem-solving capabilities.
