REPORT ON UNION BUDGET ANALYSIS SESSION 2026–27

(B. Com & Management Studies Department)

Time: 08.00 – 09.00 AM

Venue: NB - Building 106

Attendees: 70 Students: FYBCOM(MS), SYBCOM(MS), TYBMS.

Resource Person: Dr. Nusrat Choudhary and Asst. Prof. Jayprakash Gupta.

Introduction

The B. Com (MS) Department organized an interactive academic session on the newly presented Union Budget 2026–27 to help students understand the key economic priorities and reforms announced by the Government of India. The session, titled “Union Budget 2026 — Sankalp: Decoding the 'Kartavya' Path to a Yuva Shakti-Driven Viksit Bharat”, was held on 6th February 2026 at 08.00 – 09.00 AM in Room 106, New Building. The event aimed to provide students with a critical perspective on the government’s financial direction and its focus on youth-driven national development.

Objectives

- To understand the “Three Kartavya” framework driving the Yuva Shakti-oriented budget vision for a Viksit Bharat.
- To decode the implications of the New Income Tax Act 2025 and the simplified tax regime.
- To explore emerging career opportunities in sectors such as AVGC, Biopharma, and Sports industries.

Activity Description

The session was conducted under the guidance of the resource persons Dr. Nusrat Choudhary and Asst. Prof. Jayprakash Gupta, who provided a detailed explanation of the major announcements and priorities of the Union Budget 2026–27. The Session was attended by Asst. Prof. Babli Vishwakarma, who managed the discipline ensuring a smooth execution of the event.

The speakers highlighted how the budget reflects the government's "Sankalp" to balance economic ambition with inclusive growth. Key discussions included reforms in taxation, increased infrastructure investment, and support for small and medium enterprises. The session was made interactive through student participation, where learners raised questions and engaged in discussions on how the budget would impact businesses, employment, and future opportunities.

Outcomes

The session proved to be highly informative and beneficial for students. The key outcomes were:

- Students gained a clear understanding of the Union Budget's vision.
- Learners developed analytical skills by interpreting budget allocations and government initiatives.
- Students explored new career pathways in emerging industries supported by budget provisions and encouraged active participation.

Conclusion

The Union Budget Analysis Session was successfully conducted and served as an excellent platform for students to understand India's economic priorities and the role of youth in national development. Overall, the session enhanced students' awareness of the country's financial direction and motivated them to engage more actively with economic and policy matters.
