Introduction: The NSS Unit, DLLE Committee, and Student Council Committee of Shree L. R. Tiwari Degree College of Arts, Commerce and Science observed Constitution Day (Samvidhan Divas) on 26th November 2025 to mark the adoption of the Constitution of India and to spread awareness about its values and principles.

Report: On this occasion, students of NSS, DLLE, and Student Council Committee formed a group and divided the classrooms among themselves to ensure participation from all students. The volunteers went class to class, where they briefed the students about the importance of Constitution Day and explained the significance of the Preamble of the Constitution of India. In each class, the pledge was conducted and students collectively read the Preamble, showing respect towards the democratic values of the nation. The activity was successfully carried out in all classes with active participation from students and faculty members.

Outcomes:

- Students understood the importance of the Constitution and its core values.
- The activity increased awareness about civic responsibility and national unity.
- Teamwork among NSS, DLLE, and Student Council students was strengthened through active participation.

Conclusion: The programme was conducted successfully with active participation from students and faculty members. The activity created awareness about constitutional values and encouraged students to become responsible citizens.
