Introduction

The Women Development Cell (WDC) of Shree L. R. Tiwari Degree College organized an interactive session on the occasion of Savitribai Phule Jayanti to commemorate the life and contributions of India's first woman teacher and a pioneer of women's education and social reform. The programme aimed to sensitize students towards the importance of education, gender equality, and social justice.

Objectives of the Event:

- To introduce students to the life and contributions of Savitribai Phule.
- To highlight the role of education in promoting equality and social reform.
- To encourage student participation through interactive learning.

Session Highlights:

The session was conducted by Asst. Prof. Poonam Sharma, WDC Committee Member, who highlighted the life, struggles, and contributions of Savitribai Phule in the field of women's education and social reform. The session effectively used audio-visual aids and videos, followed by interactive discussions, which enhanced student engagement and understanding of gender equality and the transformative role of education.

Outcome:

- Students gained insights into the life, struggles, and legacy of Savitribai Phule.
- Enhanced awareness about the importance of education as a tool for social change.
- Encouraged critical thinking and active participation among students.
- Strengthened values of equality, social justice, and women empowerment.

Conclusion:

The programme successfully achieved its objectives by creating awareness about Savitribai Phule's contributions to education and social reform, and reinforced the role of education in promoting an equitable society.
