Report

Topic: Orientation Programme by Website Committee for All FY Students

Time: 9.00 AM Onwards

Venue: Room 505, New Building

Date: 27 June, 2025

Target Audience: First Year Students of All Departments

1. Introduction:

The Website Committee of Shree L. R. Tiwari Degree College organized an Orientation Programme for the First-Year students as a part of the college's Orientation Week activities. The session was designed to familiarize students with the structure, features, and purpose of the college's official website, and how it acts as a key medium of digital communication between the institution and the student community. The orientation aimed to enhance digital literacy, transparency, and accessibility to academic and institutional resources.

2. Highlights of the Program

- A live demonstration of the official college website covering navigation, menus, and useful student sections.
- Detailed explanation on accessing content of office charter, results, and Activities .
- Open interaction for resolving students' doubts regarding the site's usability and accessibility.

3. Objectives of the Program

- To introduce students to the official college website structure, features, and purpose.
- To explain the student-centric features like result access, e-content resources, and feedback forms available on the website.
- To promote digital awareness and encourage students to stay updated via the official platform.

4. Outcome of the Program

- Students developed a clear understanding of the website's purpose and navigation.
- Increased awareness of how the website acts as an essential source for timely updates and academic planning.
- Students expressed appreciation for the orientation and felt more confident in independently accessing official information online.
