Report

Celebration of Librarian Day

Event Name: Librarian's Day (Celebrating Dr. S.R. Ranganathan's Birthday)

Organized by: Library & Literary Committee

Venue: College Library

Date: 12th August 2025

Time: 10:30 AM

Introduction

Librarian's Day is celebrated every year on 12th August to remember Dr. S.R. Ranganathan, the Father of Library Science in India. The day honors the hard work and important role of librarians in education.

This year, the Library & Literary Committee organized a series of engaging, non-technical activities aimed at involving students, faculty, and staff in recognizing the evolving role of libraries. The event featured a speech by our esteemed Principal, Dr. Sanjay Mishra, along with Book Review Competition for students.

Objectives of the Event

- To recognize the contribution of librarians.
- To promote library use and reading habits.
- To encourage professional growth and learning

Outcomes

- The event began with the ceremonial lamp lighting by Principal Dr. Sanjay Mishra, symbolizing knowledge and wisdom.
- Dr. Mishra delivered an inspiring speech on the life and contributions of Dr. S.R. Ranganathan and the changing role of libraries today.

- A Book Review Competition was organized with 98 student participants, who presented thoughtful reviews on different books.
- The event encouraged students to read more, think critically, and make better use of library resources.
- It highlighted the importance of libraries as centers for learning, research, and digital access.

Conclusion

The Librarian's Day celebration was a great success. It honored librarians, encouraged learning, and showed how important libraries are today. Students and teachers took part with enthusiasm, making the event fun and meaningful. The Book Review Competition added an academic touch and reminded everyone about the value of reading. The event ended on a positive note, inspiring all to make better use of library resources.
