Report of Marathi Rajbhasha Gaurav Din Celebration

Event Title: Marathi Rajbhasha Gaurav Din

Organized by: Library & Literary Committee

Venue: Old Building, Class Room No. 103

Date: 28th February, 2026

Time: 11:00 PM

Introduction

Marathi Rajbhasha Gaurav Din is celebrated to honor the richness, heritage, and significance of the Marathi language, which holds the status of the official language of the state of Maharashtra. The day aims to promote love, respect, and awareness for the Marathi language and literature among people. To mark this occasion, the Library Department and Non-Teaching Staff Department organized the celebration of Marathi Rajbhasha Gaurav Din on Saturday, 28th February 2026 in the college premises. The Programme was conducted with great enthusiasm and witnessed active participation from students, teaching staff, and non-teaching staff.

Objectives

1. To celebrate and promote the importance of the Marathi language as the state language of Maharashtra.
2. To encourage students and staff to develop respect and pride for Marathi language and culture.
3. To provide a platform for participants to express their thoughts and creativity through speeches, poetry, and cultural performances.
4. To create awareness about the rich literary heritage of the Marathi language.
5. To strengthen cultural unity and participation among students, teaching staff, and non-teaching staff.

Programme Highlights

The Programme began with the ceremonial lighting of the lamp by the respected Principal, marking the auspicious beginning of the celebration. The Principal also delivered an inspiring speech highlighting the importance of the Marathi language and its contribution to literature, culture, and society. The Programme was beautifully anchored by Mr. Nitin Jadhav, Office Superintendent, who conducted the event in a lively and engaging manner.

During the Programme, several teachers presented Marathi poems, showcasing the beauty and depth of Marathi literature. Some participants also recited Pasaydan, creating a spiritual and cultural atmosphere during the celebration. A few teachers delivered informative speeches emphasizing the importance of preserving and promoting the Marathi language. The cultural segment of the Programme added great charm to the celebration. Lady teaching staff performed a graceful dance, which was appreciated by the audience. Similarly, lady non-teaching staff also presented a wonderful dance performance, which made the Programme more enjoyable and lively. The Programme was successfully organized with the valuable efforts and coordination of Dr. Saeed Sawant from the Examination Department, whose contribution played an important role in making the event well-organized and memorable.

Conclusion

The celebration of Marathi Rajbhasha Gaurav Din was a grand success and created a sense of pride and appreciation for the Marathi language among all present. The enthusiastic participation of teachers and non-teaching staff made the event lively and memorable. The programme concluded on a positive note, highlighting the importance of preserving and promoting the Marathi language and culture for future generations.
