REPORT ON READING WEEK

Date: 17th November 2025 to 24th November 2025

Time: 10:30 a.m.

Venue: College Library

Organised by: Library and Literary Committee in collaboration with the Magazine and Newsletter Committee and BAMMC Department

Introduction:

The Library and Literary Committee, in collaboration with the Magazine and Newsletter Committee and the BAMMC Department, organised Reading Week (Vachan Prerna Diwas) from 17th November to 24th November 2025 in the college library. The week-long initiative was conducted to promote the habit of reading and to create awareness about the importance of literature, newspapers, and books among students and faculty members. The programme was also dedicated to honouring the life and contributions of Dr. A. P. J. Abdul Kalam, a visionary leader and an inspiration to generations.

Objectives of Reading Week:

- To cultivate a regular reading habit among students and faculty
- To promote intellectual curiosity and critical thinking
- To encourage interaction with books, newspapers, and literary discussions
- To inspire students through the values and vision of Dr. A. P. J. Abdul Kalam
- To strengthen the academic and literary culture on campus

Highlights of the Event:

Day 1 – Inauguration (17th November 2025):

The Reading Week was formally inaugurated by the Principal, who emphasized the importance of developing consistent reading habits among students. He highlighted that Reading Day should not be limited to a single celebration but should be observed every day, which inspired the concept of celebrating Reading Week to reinforce the culture of reading on campus.

Day 2 – Newspaper Reading Session (19th November 2025):

A newspaper reading session was conducted by Asst. Prof. Ajay Yadav, who brought valuable industry experience from his six years of association with The Indian Express. The session focused on familiarizing students with the various sections of a newspaper and explaining their significance, thereby enhancing their understanding of news analysis and media literacy.

Day 3 – Case Study Discussion (20th November 2025):

A case study discussion session was conducted by Asst. Prof. Swati Bhatt, encouraging students to think critically and express their viewpoints. The session promoted collaborative learning and effective communication.

Day 4 – Book Description Session (21st November 2025):

The book description session was conducted by Asst. Prof. Namrata Singh and Asst. Prof. Eram Ansari. The session provided detailed insights into the essential components of a book, including the ISBN number, preface, foreword, summary, and genre. Additionally, students were guided on effective ways to begin reading a book, encouraging systematic and meaningful reading practices.

Day 5 – Conclusion and Interactive Activities (24th November 2025):

The concluding day included interactive games, reflections, and feedback from participants. Students actively shared their learning experiences, making the final day engaging and memorable.

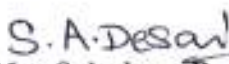

Learning Outcomes:

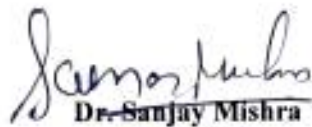

- Improved reading habits and interest in literature
- Enhanced analytical, critical thinking, and communication skills
- Increased awareness of current affairs through newspaper reading
- Greater appreciation for books and literary discussions
- Inspiration drawn from the ideals and vision of Dr. A. P. J. Abdul Kalam

Conclusion:

Reading Week (Vachan Prerna Diwas) was successfully conducted and created an enriching academic atmosphere on campus. The variety of activities ensured active participation and meaningful engagement from students and faculty alike. The programme effectively reinforced the importance of reading as a tool for lifelong learning and personal growth. The tribute to Dr. A. P. J. Abdul Kalam added deeper value to the initiative, motivating participants to pursue knowledge with dedication and purpose.
