Introduction:

The National Service Scheme (NSS) organized an Orientation Session for all first-year students as part of the ongoing Orientation Week for the Academic Year 2025–2026. The session aimed to introduce students to the core objectives, activities, and opportunities offered by the NSS, while encouraging their active participation in community service initiatives.

Objectives of the Session:

- To familiarize students with the aims, structure, and activities of the National Service Scheme (NSS).
- To encourage active student participation in community service and nation-building initiatives.
- To instill values of social responsibility, teamwork, and leadership among first-year students.

Session Highlights:

The session, conducted by Asst. Prof. Rambhavan Yadav, NSS Programme Officer, welcomed the first-year students and emphasized the importance of social responsibility and community engagement. Students were introduced to NSS, its history, structure, and key activities such as community service projects, social awareness campaigns, and leadership programs. Interactive discussions encouraged students to share ideas and understand their role in contributing to future NSS initiatives.

Conclusion:

The orientation inspired first-year students to actively participate in NSS activities, fostering responsibility, teamwork, and leadership, and set the stage for ongoing community engagement throughout the year.
