Introduction:

On 4th August 2025, the Institution's Innovation Council (IIC) and the R&D Cell of Shree L.R. Tiwari Degree College organized a mentoring session on "Innovation and Prototype Validation – Transforming Ideas into Start-ups." Held in the Seminar Hall at 11:30 AM, the session was conducted by Mr. Bankim Mistry, Member of the Industrial Awards Scrutiny Committee. He guided students on validating ideas, developing prototypes, and aligning innovations with market needs.

Objectives of the Session:

- To familiarize participants with the concepts, stages, and best practices in prototype development.
- To impart knowledge on effective process design and optimization techniques.
- To bridge the gap between innovative ideas and practical, industry-compliant execution.
- To encourage students to participate in innovation competitions and industrial award platforms.

Outcome of the Session:

- Participants gained a clear understanding of prototype development cycles, from ideation to final testing.
- Students learned how to structure and document processes for efficiency, quality, and scalability.
- The session inspired innovative thinking aligned with industry evaluation standards.
- Faculty and students were motivated to actively engage in institutional innovation projects and national-level competitions.

Conclusion:

Our NSS volunteers actively participated in the session, gaining practical knowledge about entrepreneurship, innovation strategies, and the start-up ecosystem. The session proved to be an enriching experience, encouraging students to think creatively and pursue their entrepreneurial aspirations with confidence.
