Introduction

The University of Mumbai initiated a celebration to mark 150 years of the National Song, Vande Mataram, composed by Bankim Chandra Chatterjee. The event witnessed enthusiastic participation from students and faculty members, all dressed in the prescribed white and black/blue attire, symbolizing unity and discipline. The program commenced with a brief introduction highlighting the historical and cultural importance of Vande Mataram.

Objectives of the Event:

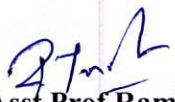

- To commemorate the 150th anniversary of Vande Mataram and honor its historical and cultural significance.
- To promote patriotism, unity, and respect for national values among students and faculty through collective participation.
- To encourage active student involvement in national and cultural celebrations in collaboration with the University of Mumbai.

Outcomes:

- Strengthened the spirit of patriotism, unity, and cultural pride among students and faculty.
- Increased awareness about the historical and emotional significance of Vande Mataram.
- Encouraged institutional collaboration and teamwork through joint organization of the event.

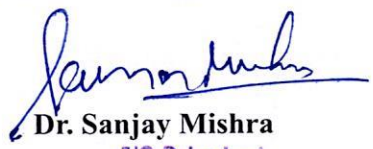

Conclusion:

The Mass Singing of Vande Mataram was a memorable and patriotic event that instilled a deep sense of national pride and unity among the college community. It not only celebrated the 150-year legacy of the National Song but also reinforced the values of harmony, respect, and devotion to the nation.
