Introduction and Event Overview

On 16th February 2026, the NSS Unit of Shree L. R. Tiwari Degree College of Arts, Commerce & Science organized a highly successful Mega Blood Donation Camp. This life-saving initiative was conducted in professional collaboration with the Bharat Ratna Rajiv Gandhi Blood Bank (MBMC). The event saw an overwhelming response from students, faculty, and the local community, resulting in the collection of 227 units of blood.

The camp was inaugurated by Dr. Sanjay Mishra and supervised by Asst. Prof. Rambhavan Yadav. A dedicated team of medical professionals from the municipal blood bank ensured that all donations were handled with the highest standards of safety and clinical hygiene.

Objectives of the Event

- Awareness: To raise awareness about the importance of blood donation and its impact on saving lives.
- Voluntary Culture: To promote a culture of voluntary blood donation among students and faculty, emphasizing the health benefits for both donors and recipients.
- Healthcare Support: To support healthcare institutions by ensuring an adequate supply of safe blood for medical emergencies, surgeries, and life-threatening conditions.

Session Highlights

- Registration and Screening: Donors underwent a preliminary health check-up, including weight measurement, hemoglobin testing, and blood pressure monitoring, to ensure they met the eligibility criteria.
- Donation Process: The auditorium was transformed into a professional clinical setup. NSS volunteers worked tirelessly to manage the high volume of participants and assist the medical team.
- Post-Donation Care: Every donor was provided with energy-restoring refreshments and kept under medical observation to ensure their well-being.
- Recognition: All 227 donors were presented with a Certificate of Appreciation and a donor card, recognizing their noble contribution to society.

Key Outcomes

- Significant Impact: The collection of 227 units significantly bolstered the reserves of the Rajiv Gandhi Blood Bank, directly contributing to emergency medical care in the Mira-Bhayandar region.
- Behavioral Change: The event successfully debunked myths regarding blood donation, encouraging a large number of first-time donors.
- Institutional Responsibility: The massive turnout demonstrated the college's strong commitment to civic duty and its effective partnership with local municipal bodies.
- Social Empathy: The drive fostered a deep sense of social responsibility and humanitarian spirit within the student community.
