Report on Departmental Interactive Session: Union Budget 2026-27

Overview:

The Department of Bachelor of Accounting & Finance (BAF) has issued a formal notice regarding an upcoming interactive session centered on the Union Budget 2026-27. The session, titled "Sankalp: Decoding the 'Kartavya' Path to a Yuva Shakti-Driven Viksit Bharat," aims to provide students with a comprehensive understanding of the government's current economic framework and its focus on inclusive growth.

Event Details

- Date: 7th February 2026
- Time: 10.30 A.M
- Venue: Room G1, New Building
- Speaker: Asst. Prof. Saatish Pandey
- Attendance: Mandatory for all BAF students

Session Objectives

- Framework Understanding: To educate students on the "Three Kartavya" framework that guides the budget's vision for a Viksit Bharat.
- Regulatory Analysis: To examine the specific implications of the New Income Tax Act, 2025 and the transition toward a simplified tax regime.
- Economic Evaluation: To analyze the impact of the ₹12.2 lakh crore public capital expenditure and the newly introduced SME Growth Fund.
- Career Guidance: To identify and explore emerging professional opportunities within the AVGC (Animation, Visual Effects, Gaming, and Comics), Biopharma, and Sports sectors.

Expected Outcomes:

1. Develop Fiscal Literacy: Gain a clear grasp of how large-scale public expenditure (specifically the ₹12.2 lakh crore allocation) influences national economic health.
2. Tax Competency: Understand the practical changes brought about by the New Income Tax Act, 2025, which is critical for future accounting and finance professionals.
3. Strategic Career Planning: Align their skill development with the high-growth sectors highlighted in the budget, such as Biopharma and AVGC.
4. Civic Awareness: Connect the concept of "Yuva Shakti" (Youth Power) with their personal responsibility ("Kartavya") in the nation's journey toward becoming a developed economy.
