Report on Seminar on Communication Skills

Date: 28th June 2025

Venue: Room 301, Old Building

Conducted by: BAMMC Department

Speaker: Asst. Prof. Sangeeta Suryavanshi

Introduction:

The department of Bachelors of Multimedia and mass communication organized a Seminar on Communication Skills for all FY, SY and TY students of the department.

Purpose of the Visit:

The aim of the seminar was to enhance the communication competencies of BAMMC students by developing their verbal, non-verbal, and written communication skills. This initiative focused on improving students' ability to express ideas clearly, engage with diverse audiences, and adapt to multiple media platforms.

Key Highlights of the Seminar:

1. Introduction to Communication Skills:

The speaker began by explaining the fundamental components of communication—verbal, non-verbal, and written—and their relevance in the field of mass media.

2. Real-World Media Scenarios:

Examples from the speaker's professional experiences were shared to highlight the importance of effective communication in journalism, public relations, and digital media roles.

3. Practical Tips and Techniques:

Students were taught practical strategies to enhance confidence, clarity, and creativity while interacting in professional settings. Emphasis was placed on articulation, body language, listening skills, and audience analysis.

4. Interactive Participation:

The session included activities and real-time examples that helped students apply theoretical knowledge in a practical context. Participants responded actively with questions and reflections.

5. Relevance to Media Careers:

The seminar concluded with a discussion on how strong communication skills serve as a foundation for successful careers in mass media and beyond.

Learning Outcomes:

- Students gained a comprehensive understanding of core communication principles.
- Enhanced awareness of the role communication plays across different media formats.
- Strengthened articulation, confidence, and interpersonal interaction capabilities.
- Inspired students to further refine their communication styles for professional success.

Conclusion:

The seminar proved to be highly insightful and enriching for all BAMMC students. It aligned perfectly with the department's objective of preparing students for dynamic roles in the media industry. The BAMMC Department extends sincere gratitude to Asst. Prof. Sangeeta Suryavanshi for her engaging and informative session.
