Report on – FY B. Com (MS) Orientation Programme

Topic: Orientation Programme 26-27

Participant: Male -19 , Female -25 , Total - 44

The Department of B.Com. (Management Studies) successfully conducted the Orientation Programme for First Year BMS (FYBMS) students to welcome the newly admitted students and familiarize them with the academic environment, institutional policies, and the BMS programme. The programme aimed to provide students with a clear understanding of the course structure, examination system, student support services, and the opportunities available for their holistic development.

The session commenced with a warm welcome by the Head of the Department. Dr. Nusrat Choudhary followed by an introduction to the Bachelor of Management Studies (BMS) programme, its objectives, and the scope of management education. Students were introduced to the department, faculty members, and the teaching-learning process adopted by the institution.

Students were briefed by Asst. Prof. Babli Vishwakarma the semester-wise curriculum, credit structure, examination and evaluation pattern, attendance requirements, code of conduct, library facilities, mentoring system, and various student support services. The department also highlighted co-curricular and extracurricular activities, value-added and certificate courses, seminars, workshops, industrial visits, community engagement initiatives, and career development opportunities available throughout the programme.

The faculty encouraged students to actively participate in academic, cultural, sports, and extension activities to develop leadership qualities, communication skills, professionalism, and an overall personality suited to the corporate world. The importance of discipline, ethical values, teamwork, and continuous learning was also emphasized.

The orientation programme concluded with an interactive question-and-answer session, where students clarified their academic and administrative queries. The programme was informative and beneficial, enabling students to understand the expectations of the BMS programme and helping them transition smoothly into college life. A total of 44 students attended the orientation programme.

Outcome

The orientation programme successfully acquainted the FYBMS students with the academic structure, institutional policies, and various learning opportunities available in the BMS programme. It motivated students to actively participate in academic and co-curricular activities while preparing them for a productive and enriching academic journey.
