Report on Orientation of Unfair Means and Inquiry Committee

1.Event Details

Name of the Event: Orientation Programme on Unfair Means and Inquiry Committee

Venue: College Auditorium

Organized by: Unfair Means and Inquiry Committee

2. Introduction

The Unfair Means and Inquiry Committee organized an Orientation Programme to create awareness among students regarding examination discipline, unfair means practices, examination rules, and the procedures followed by the Committee in matters related to examination conduct. The programme was scheduled for students of different courses in two sessions at the College Auditorium. The programme commenced with a welcome to the students and faculty members, followed by the National Anthem and a brief introduction to the Unfair Means and Inquiry Committee. The Principal, Dr Anju Arya, was formally introduced and felicitated during the programme. The orientation was conducted separately for Commerce and Arts & Science students. The Commerce session included a PowerPoint presentation by Dr Nusrat Choudhary, Chairperson of the Committee, while the Arts & Science session included a PowerPoint presentation by Asst Prof Shivshankar Vishwakarma, Convenor of the Committee. The presentations focused on examination discipline, unfair means practices, relevant rules and regulations, consequences of misconduct, and the inquiry procedure.

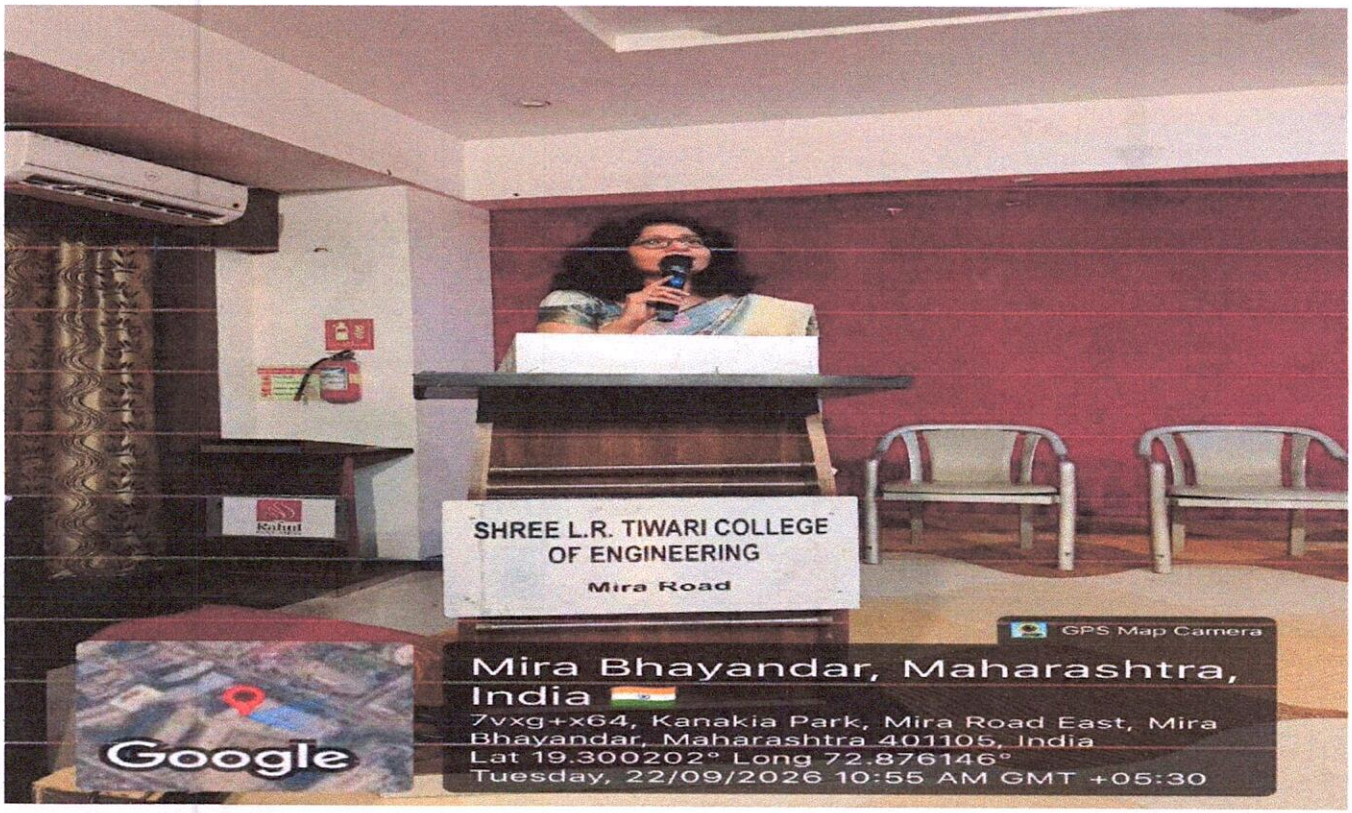

3. Highlights of the Event

- The programme focused on examination discipline and the importance of maintaining academic integrity.
- Students were oriented about unfair means practices, examination misconduct, and the relevant rules and regulations.
- The consequences and disciplinary action associated with the use of unfair means were highlighted.
- The role and responsibilities of the Unfair Means and Inquiry Committee were explained, along with the inquiry procedure followed in such cases.
- Students were guided regarding their rights, responsibilities, and expected conduct during examinations.
