The orientation programme commenced with a solemn and traditional lighting of the lamp ceremony, symbolizing the dispelling of ignorance and the ushering in of knowledge. The dignitaries, faculty members, and student representatives participated in the ceremony, creating an atmosphere of positivity and reverence.

The Orientation Programme for First-Year students was conducted in three separate batches as per the following schedule:

- 09:00 a.m. to 10:00 a.m. – B.Sc. (IT), B.Sc. (CS), B.A.M.M.C., B.B.I., and B.Sc. (Hospitality Studies)

- 11:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. – B.Sc. (Aviation)

Each session was tailored to the respective programmes to ensure effective communication and engagement.

The purpose of the session was to familiarize newly admitted students with the institutional ethos, academic and administrative frameworks, and to introduce them to the vision, mission, and values of the institution. The orientation also aimed to promote early integration into the campus culture, awareness of student-centric initiatives, and participation in personal and academic development activities.

This was followed by the felicitation of the Principal, Dr. Sanjay Mishra, in recognition of his continuous leadership and contributions to the holistic development of the institution. Dr. Mishra was presented with a token of appreciation by the organizers.

Following the formal inauguration, Dr. Sanjay Mishra addressed the First-Year students and led the orientation session. In his insightful presentation, he welcomed the students to the institution and emphasized the importance of discipline, time management, and active engagement in all aspects of college life. He shared a detailed overview of the institution's journey, NAAC achievements, and future strategies aligned with the National Education Policy (NEP) 2020. His address inspired students to embrace new opportunities and become responsible members of the academic community.

During the orientation, students were introduced to several institutional developments, including the launch of new value-added and certificate courses, implementation of NEP 2020 reforms, recent NAAC accreditation, and enhancements in infrastructure such as the library and ICT-enabled classrooms. Academic updates included an overview of curriculum structure, internal and external evaluation methods, use of Learning Management Systems (LMS) like Google Classroom, and guidelines related to project work, internships, and field visits.

Students were also briefed on the support systems available on campus, such as mentoring and counseling services, and the functioning of the Student Development Cell, Placement Cell, and DLLE. Additional highlights included information on grievance redressal mechanisms, anti-ragging policies, and awareness about scholarships and financial aid schemes.
Furthermore, the session emphasized participation in co-curricular and extracurricular activities, encouraging students to get involved in upcoming events, intercollegiate competitions, and join various student committees, NSS, NCC, and cultural clubs. Dr. Mishra also underlined the importance of upholding institutional values and discipline, including regular attendance, respectful behavior, punctuality, integrity, and maintaining the cleanliness and decorum of the campus.

Outcomes of the Orientation:

- Students gained an understanding of institutional structure and academic expectations.
- They became aware of the various support services and facilities available.
- There was an increase in interest and willingness to join student bodies and participate in activities.
- Students showed enthusiasm toward enrolling in value-added and skill-based programs.
- The session prepared students to engage confidently with new academic platforms and systems.

The orientation served as a welcoming and informative experience that helped First-Year students transition smoothly into college life. It laid a strong foundation for their academic journey and personal development. The session concluded with a Q&A round, encouraging open dialogue and clarifying initial queries of the students.
