Introduction

The Department of BBI organized an Orientation Program for first-year students to introduce them to the academic environment, course structure, departmental policies, and support services. The session aimed to facilitate a smooth transition into college life and encourage active participation in academic, co-curricular, and extracurricular activities for holistic development.

Objectives

- To provide students with a clear understanding of the academic structure, curriculum, and course outcomes for the new academic year.
- To familiarize students with departmental rules, regulations, code of conduct, and academic expectations.
- To create awareness about the academic support systems, mentoring facilities, and student welfare services available in the institution.
- To encourage students to actively participate in curricular, co-curricular, and extracurricular activities for their overall development.

Session Highlights

The orientation session began with a warm welcome to the newly admitted BBI students. They were introduced to the programme structure, curriculum, course outcomes, departmental rules, attendance requirements, examination patterns, and code of conduct. Information about academic support services, mentoring, and student welfare initiatives was also shared. Students were encouraged to participate actively in curricular, co-curricular, and extracurricular activities, including seminars, workshops, competitions, NSS, and cultural events. The session also emphasized discipline, professional skill development, and academic excellence, followed by an interactive Q&A session. The program concluded with a vote of thanks and best wishes for a successful academic year.

Outcomes

- Students gained a clear understanding of the academic structure, curriculum, and course outcomes of the BBI programme.
- Students became familiar with departmental rules, regulations, and the code of conduct to be followed throughout the academic year.
- Awareness was created about the academic support systems, mentoring facilities, and student welfare services available in the institution.
- Students developed confidence and readiness to begin their academic journey in a disciplined and organized manner.

Conclusion

The Orientation Program was highly informative and beneficial for the newly admitted students. It successfully familiarized them with the academic framework, departmental expectations, and support systems available within the institution. The session helped students gain clarity about their course and encouraged them to actively participate in various academic and extracurricular activities. Overall, the program provided a positive start to the academic year and laid a strong foundation for the students' educational and personal growth.
